FOREWORD...

Lovely things die only when their memories fade; and so the glamour of one's high school days are preserved in the pages of this book.

Dear Teacher
It's sure been fun taking a class from you this year it was lots of fun being in your operetta. We'll have fun and be good to you.
Your very hard working pupil

P.S. Lots of luck

DEDICATION

AS THE YEARS pass and our memories of

Cedar High School grow dim, we shall always remember Mr. Bethers, and the way in which he brightened our high school days.

We shall remember him as a friend, whose wisdom helped us to become better men and women. To Mr. Bethers we hereby dedicate the 1950 Cedarian, hoping that this, in a small way, may show our appreciation for his tireless efforts in our behalf, for his willingness to give his services at all times in order that we may prosper, and for his steady, inspiring gift of friendship that will forever remain within our hearts.

There is no book of high school days that is more treasured than the yearbook. It is your own book in the fullest sense. It is written by your classmates; it is financed from your funds; it is a record of your activities. The events that it chronicles have been shaped by you. The story it tells is your story. The memories it holds are there for you to call with pleasure again and again. That you will recall your classroom instruction with equal pleasure and pride is my fondest wish.

WALTER K. DALY
Dean of Boys

Some day you will look back upon your days in high school as among the happiest days of your lives. Take advantage of all the wonderful opportunities your school has to offer and your memories of high school days will be pleasant ones indeed.

To the Seniors who are leaving our school may I extend my sincere congratulations upon your past accomplishments and wish you the greatest possible success and happiness in the years ahead.

Dear Evelyn: I have really enjoyed working with you this year. Best wishes for a happy and satisfying life wherever you may go. Love, Elmer.

Diane Smith, president; Lucy Green, Junior Representative; Suzanne Halterman, reporter; Marilyn Kempfe, program chairman; Corman Adams, Senior Representative.

GIRLS' ORGANIZATION

The Girls' Organization—sometimes called the Cedarettes—includes every girl in school. Its program begins in September with the initiation of the tenth grade girls and closes in May with its farewell breakfast for the Seniors. In between these dates other fall activities such as the traditional dance, an assembly, and a party for all the students. Out of its funds each year articles are purchased which are needed and used by all the school. The Cedarettes' goal is to make a good school better by fostering friendship, loyalty, and service.

BOYS' ORGANIZATION

The Boys' Organization includes all boys in the school. The purpose of the organization is to develop a spirit of enthusiasm, co-operation, and good will within our school, and to work for the improvement of our school in every possible way.

Some of the projects which the Boys' Organization sponsors are:

Slave Day—at which time tenth grade boys are initiated into our school.

Christmas Show—all members of the student body are guests at a special show engaged at a downtown theater.

Dad's Night—a night of fun in the gym when our Dads join us in games, boxing, and wrestling exhibitions, and a buffet supper.

Boys' Day—our annual clean-up day, assembly, and dance.

ASSEMBLIES

Little do we realize the hard work that goes on behind the scenes of every assembly. Let us congratulate these people, who have in any way helped to make our assemblies a success.

DANCE REVUE

March 8th and 9th marked the date of the annual dance revue presented in four performances by the Girls' Physical Education classes.

Thanks to the initiative of our dance director, Jean McIntosh, it was a huge success.

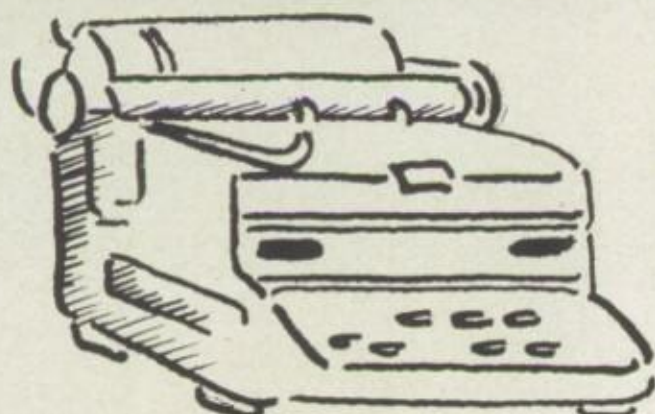

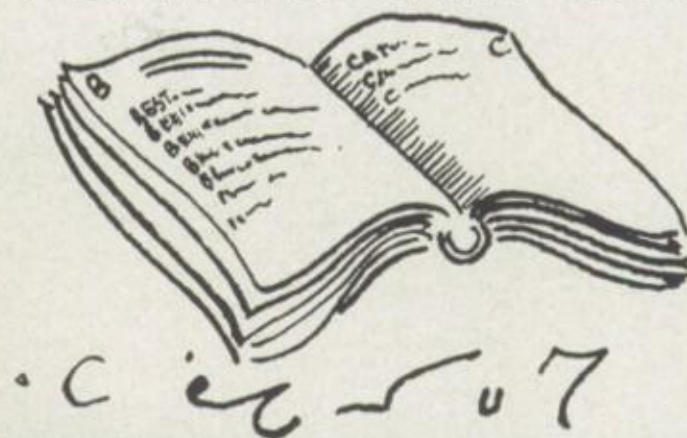

Beautiful costumes, lighting and movements effected a very interesting performance.

WAR SONG

When our Redmen Team is in the game,

And the whole school is fighting to guard its name,

And the Reds yell like warriors as the team goes by,

There's a killing in the old town tonight.

Then Cedar's banners are waving
in triumph on the hill,

And Cedar's cohorts are cheering for the Reds have made their kill---Rah! Rah!

This day is ours, ours forever let victory never fade,

Then rise, rise and cheer, boys, 'till the winning score is made!

GLEN R. JACKSON

Dear Mrs. ^{Coach} Jackson: I have enjoyed working with you this year - I wish you were going to be with us next year too - you know we can use a few people on our faculty with new ideas - Best wishes for your happiness - Coach Jackson

FOOTBALL SCORES

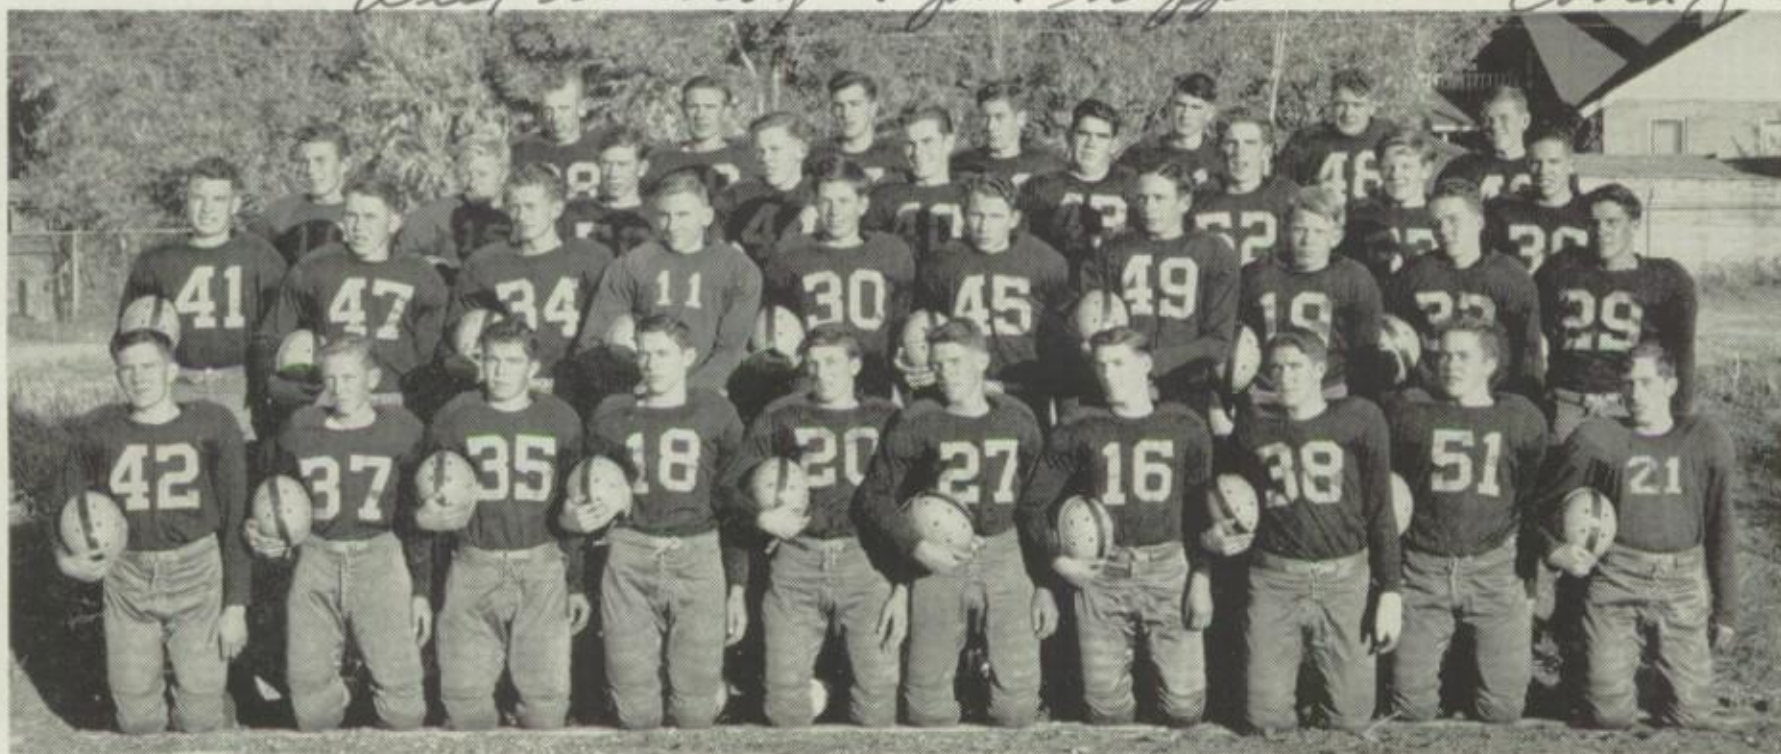

The end of our first year of eleven-men football found Cedar City in second place for the Region. Offensively we scored 192 points to our opponents' 48. A lot of bad breaks, with injuries and an untimely snowstorm, caused us to lose games that otherwise would have given us the Regional title.

Next year, with hard work and determination, we expect to represent Region Six in the state playoff.

GLEN R. JACKSON.

BASKETBALL SCORES

This season, although the Redmen failed to represent Region Six in the State Tournament, was one to be well proud of. Picked by many to finish in the last place, the Cedar City five tied and lost to Dixie in the playoff for Regional Championship.

The team work and spirit of the Redmen would make any coach proud of the privilege of working with them.

THANKS

Here is our contribution to the history and tradition of Cedar City High School. Here, in this volume, are our hopes, fears, dreams, ambitions, and work. We hope it will be a Cedarian you will treasure as a reminder of this school year—Seniors, as your last; Underclassmen, as one more step on the stairway to education.

I would like to give thanks to our assistant editor, Dale Perkins, for his untiring efforts in helping to make this book possible. To Jimmie Jones and to Leslie Schrandt we would like to extend a special vote of appreciation for the fine art work, of which we are so proud. Our thanks to a wonderful staff, such as we have had. It is impossible to give enough credit. They were all invaluable. We give thanks, also, to the business men who have made the following advertising section both possible and interesting. To our photographer, Homer Jones, we extend our sincere thanks and appreciation for the fine pictures and his expert assistance.

We are unable to say exactly how much an advisor means in times of discouragement and disappointment. Miss Holt suffered with us in our bad moments, and shared our happy ones, too. Without her this yearbook would never have been a reality.

To all of you, to each possesor of this book, and to the student body in general, we offer this book as a token of your high school days to be remembered as time goes by.

Sincerely,
MARILYN KEMPLE, Editor.

Dear Evelyn -
 My acquaintance with you and all year has been it most pleasant. I've enjoyed old teaching profession!
